

Call for Papers for Junior Researchers

Workshop on the Impact of Immigration and Refugee Inflows on Host Country Economies

March 6-7, 2025

at John F. Kennedy Institute, Freie Universität Berlin

Confirmed Speakers:

Ekrame Boubtane (CERDI, Université Clermont Auvergne)

Michael Christl (European Commission)

Yvonne Giesing (ifo Munich)

Zohal Hessami (Ruhr University Bochum)

Lisa Tarquinio (University of Western Ontario)

Riccardo Turati (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona)

Susanne Worbs (BAMF)

The Keynote lecture will be delivered by Professor Anna Maria Mayda (Georgetown University).

Organizer: Max Steinhardt

Collaborator: Christopher Prömel

We invite junior researchers (non-tenured) to submit papers for the poster session at the Workshop on the Impact of Immigration and Refugee Inflows on Host Country Economies. The workshop, supported by the Thyssen Foundation, covers a wide range of topics, emphasizing empirical economic research in this area. This two-day event will feature a select number of invited speakers alongside a poster session where junior researchers can showcase their work. A key goal of the workshop is to foster meaningful connections between emerging researchers and senior scholars with shared interests in these important topics.

If you are interested in presenting a paper during the poster session, please send a draft of your paper to christopher.proemel@fu-berlin.de by December 20, 2024. Decisions will be made by January 15, 2025. Limited funds are available to cover travel expenses for participation in the workshop.